Kids & Pros teaches safe, non-contact football instruction and life skills to campers ages 7-13. This nonprofit organization launched in 2002 by former Atlanta Falcons Bobby Butler and Buddy Curry challenges experienced players, and introduces newcomers to the game. Over the last 12 years, Kids & Pros has shared its mission with more than 15,000 campers throughout the Southeast.

KIDS & PROS OFFERS:

Heads Up FootballSM Football Camps & Safety Clinics: 3-day camps and 1-day clinics for athletes ages 7-13, led by current and former NFL players.

Heads Up Football Parent Information Sessions: Community forums to educate parents on the importance of correct equipment fitting, concussion awareness, and Heads Up tackling technique.

Heads Up Football Coaches Clinics: Classroom and on-the-field demonstrations for youth football coaches.

Camp EQUIP: Camp for inner city athletes ages 7-13 featuring football for male campers, and basketball for female campers.

Kids & Pros Life Skills Coaching Sessions: One-on-one and group coaching sessions to build confidence and inspire high achieving teams.
